FROM YOUR EDITOR

Hello Fellow Members

president Ed Cruig advised that our meeting on November 5, our president Ed Cruig advised that our Journal additive Nully Stone was in the Hoppital. I volunteered to become the new editor with the support of Edward Russ. I was the editor from 1933 to 1957. With our club in US 37" year our journals is up to volume 43. This is incorrect, to I am dropping the volume and issue rumber. I will just use the year and pagan. (2015 Winter).

I would like to update our membership lit with the correct enail addresses, soon we want is start sending the fourmal out electronically. Some members will be my personal guinear pigs to test the sending out of the fourmal. In he first couple times the journal will go out electronically and also as a paper journal. Emailing of the journal, a many organizations do, will save the liab the expensive costs of printing and malling. We expect a reduction in the cost of dues for those reactions the email version.

I am bringing back things that I had in my journal tenure. Welcome back Tony Tokenut, Token Trivia, Maryland Woods, Maryland Mavericks, Members in the News, Minutes of the meetings and other items.

I still need your help spiplying articles and any other information that you would like by have with your fillow members. Remember that each member may place of few 25 word ad which can be enactaled from the thember ad mend to be submitted and which can be enactaled from the thember ad mend to be submitted and thenry Holiday Season. Next deadline for the journal will be on February 15°.

The November 5, 2016 meeting of the Maryland Token & Medal Society was called to order at 11:05 AM by President Ed Craig with 14 members and one guest in attendance. Secretary Downs read the minutes of the July 16, 2016 meeting. Treasure Bill Stratemover read the MD TAMS account balances. Journal editor Wally Stone was absent due to illness. There were no committee reports.

OLD BUSINESS:

Ed Craig amounced that back issues of the Maryland TAMS Journal were now posted to the Newman Numismatic Portal, but he noted that the portal did not have a search mechanism at present. He also spoke about the cancellation of the October swap meet, saving it turned out to not be feasible this year.

NEW BUSINESS: Ed Craig amounced that Wally Stone has stapped down as journal aditor, effective at the end of the #### year. Ed made an urgent call for volunteers to fill that role. Due to illness, Wally is not able to get out the last

- sourned of the calendar year. Ed said he would try to get it published. June Steers asked about using amuil communications between members, but Ed Craig paged that not many members have provided their email addresses to the bound
- On the matter of the swap meets, member consensus was that having only two swap meets per year would be fine.
- Russ and Jane Sears presented their first Russ and Jane Sears Award to Ed Craie in honor of his lone and dedicated service to Mandard TAMS

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Bill Stratemeyer said that his wife Mitzi's program on the Lincoln assassination would have to be postnessed and not presented today. He also said he had numbered a error of MSNA raffle fighets on behalf of the MD TAMS
- Ed Craig amounced Bryce Doxect as the recipient of the Numismatic Ambassador Award and the Glenn Smedley Memorial Award. The latter award medal and certificate were displayed by Bryce.

SHOW AND TELL:

- Russ Sears showed a "Meet the Member" biography page that will appear in an upcoming issue of the Maryland Historical Society's Journal. Jane Sears said that her new book on Pre-Civil War Maryland Lotteries" was now available. Carl Neeley showed an article from a St. Mary's County newspaper detailing 375 years of continuous
- law enforcement: a commemorative medal accompanied the article Bryon Doxzon displayed an assistant-surgoant-st-arms hadge from the 1912 Democratic National Convention in Baltimore
- Ed Craie showed medals he had made for sale marking the 75th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor
- Bernie Bodt spoke about his research on conneries in Cocil County, noting the scorolty of labels or tokens (of which he showed three) known to exist out of 83 known canneries. The meeting broke for the auction at 11:52 AM. At the auction's conclusion. Ed Crass amounced that
- Jame Sears had starmed forward to belim additorial duties for the MD TAMS Journal, which Ed would handle the princing and mailing duties. Respectfully submitted,

Bryce Doxzon Secretary 2016 WINTER Page 6

Greenwood Park - Baltimore

Ross Sorre LM 11

It was not unusual for an 19th century investment group to purchase a tract of land, divide it up and sell parts to interested hasinesses, hailders and investors. Such was the case of Greenwood which was created by the Greenwood Land Company of Baltimore by a group from Philadelphia. The land was located in most of the land south of Federal Street, west of Mine Bank Lane, north of John Street and east of Bel Air Avenue.

One of the challenges in researching Greenwood was the fact that streets today do not always have the names they had in the 1800's. When interpreting a deed to the property some streets noted included Bel Air Avenue (now Groy Steet), Chopsalik (now Collinguen Avenue), Girs Steet (now Patterson Park Avenue) and Burke Street (now Montlörd Avenue). The key to this determination was Baltimon Street Annue Channes 1790-2000 by Thomas P. Boock, Historic Press, 2007.

NEW BOOK: PRE-CIVIL WAR MARYLAND LOTTERIES

While non-numismatic, carly lottery tickets are an interesting area of ephemera and are often collected alongside colonial paper money. Russ and Jame Saurs have just published a book on pre-Givil War Maryland lotteries; it's available on older. - Editor -

Pre-Civil War Maryland Lotteries by Russ and Jane Sears

This book of 190 pages documents the history of lotteries in Maryland thru a search of Maryland laws. The history of lotteries even prior to Maryland lotteries is presented too.

It also shows illustrations of many lottery flyers which were sent soliciting the recipient to practise lettery tickets and showing the various prizes. Sometimes the lottery agent's location is pictured, helping to show what a reliable agent one is beying from.

Bitumed on over 100-different forms richest all before the U.S. Child War.

Pictured are over 100 different lottery tickets, all before the U. S. Civil War since lotteries became illegal in Maryland in 1859. Tickets were issued for the Washington Monument (in Baltimore), the University of Maryland Catholic Catholic, various other churches, and more. You will empy this book

Ex-Editor Notes

by W. Wallace Stone R-47

It has been my privilego over the past five years to have been your editor for The Maryland TAMS Journal from the spring issue of 2012 through the summer of issue of 2016, a total of 19 issues. Now it is time for me to reliminable this post and pass the computer and script to a now member to continue our search for Maryland history and economia materials. Without the Journal, MD TAMS will have no voice among the retailing membership.

My lightning speed of fingers racing over the keyboard bave slowed to what is known as a moderate crawl in the editorship of hunter and gathering. So be it.

Almost all collors, be it tages national pages or the weekly local publications seem to have an infinity to collect miscellaneous serges of information that might be of use at some later date, or as a filler to complete us article that did not print out as long as boped for. These are seems of the ones that I collected in a small wooded file box at the edge of my computer workstation. They are presented here for your constitution and "woodlering that is really transfer for your constitution and a "woodlering that is really transfer."

Henry Kissinger sang background for Johnny Mathis hit song 'Chances Are', in mid 2008's.

Weather history; Edgemont, MD received 36 inches of snow on March 29, 1942. That is the createst 24 boar snowfall in Maryland bistory. Temperatures were in 90's three years later.

Most people fail this test; all you have to do is read the following sentence and determine bow many letter "F"s it contains.

FINISHED FILES ARE THE RESULT OF YEARS OF SCIENTIFIC STUDY

COMBINED WITH THE EXPERIENCE OF MANY YEARS.

The following is a sample of a long list of five letter words with a common trait. There are six letter words that share it. Can you tell what the trait it?

ANSWER: If the first letter of the word is removed, another word remains. And if the remaining word is removed yet another word remains. For example, removed the first letter from Ozone and Zone remains. They remains the first letter from Zone and Day they are made to the remains.

USELESS ACTUAL FACTS:

Despite all the words in the Eskimo language for 'snow' and all the words in the English language for 'urine', neither language has a word for 'vellow snow'.

Cecil County Canners

Bernie Bodt R-282

A few years ago I was asked by the Cecil County Public Library to give a presentation on the cameries in their county. My first response was that I did not know much about caming in that area. Further investigation revealed the late Mr. R. Lee Burton, Jr. had omitted this area in his publication Counteries of the Enstern Shore. Since Mr. Burton's book was mostly about the tokens used in the caming business, it appears he may have omitted this serie and to the absence of thems used in the County.

In Mr. Burton's unpublished notes, he compiled a list of 71 Cocil County censers. Additional research by the writer has increased this number to 83. This number exceeds the individual number of canners listed by Mr. Burton in Kent, Queen Anne's, and Worcester Counties.

The majority of these canneries were located in the northern portion of Cecil County on the Picdmont Platena. This location was attributed to the presence of multiple railroads needed to supply raw materials, primarily cans, and later to ship the finished can goods.

The time period covered for these canning operations was from 1882 to 1956.

The few connervingsking tokens known to exist for the area are:

George J. Liddell / Liberty Grove Wm B. Walton / Iron Hill

Wm B. Walton / Iron Hill Harry L. Harvey / North East

5) 'Savine Our Harvest' by Ed Kee

William G. Konnedy / Iron Hill

After the presentation at the Rising Sun Branch of the Cecil County Library, the audience followed with a number of comments and other local related stories.

And the search continues for additional information and tokens.

Bernie can be reached at 410-734-7702 or bodtdock @comeast.net.
